Obituary

Derrick Lambert Dawkins was born on December 24, 1927 to James and Jane Dawkins. He was one of six siblings of which Derrick was the baby.

Derrick grew up in Knockpatrick, Manchester where he later became a carpenter. As a young man he had his first daughter, Mary followed by Donna, Antoinette (Bridgette) and then Gossatte.

Derrick migrated to the United States in 1978 where he resided in the Bronx, New York up until his passing.

Derrick worked at Bronx State Hospital until he retired in 1989. After he retired, he spent his time traveling from Bronx to Jamaica until he could travel no longer. Derrick passed away on November 28, 2014.

He is survived by his three daughters, a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren, nieces, cousins and extended family and friends. He will be missed by all.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name,

In life we loved you dearly;
in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.

For part of us went with you, the day
God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
