Reflections of Life

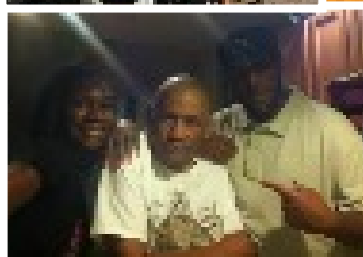

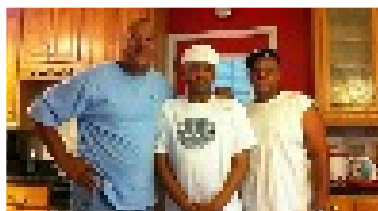

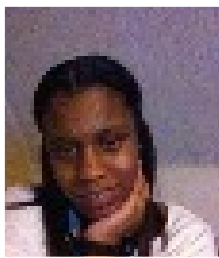

Reco Henry Wallace Jr.

(May 7, 1958-December 6, 2014)

Reco Henry Wallace Jr. returned to God's paradise on December 6, 2014 in Commerce City, Colorado where he lived for the past decade. Reco was born in Passaic, New Jersey on May 7, 1958 to the late Reco Henry Wallace and Lula Mae (Hardee) Wallace and graduated from Passaic High School in 1976.

In the early part of his life, Reco and a few friends were instrumental in the creation of the Corridors Drill Team. The Corridors gave youth a safe place to fellowship and grew to be a successful team winning championships and making a strong positive impact on the Passaic community. He moved to Colorado in 2003, where he eventually retired as a Supervisor at Atrium Windows and Doors.

Reco's memories will be cherished by: his four children, a son, Rashid (Ana Morales) and his three "Boo Boo Ladies" (daughters) Ashlee, Anastasia, and Tatiana; his grandchildren: Sha Heed, Dee Anna, Na'imah, Malaysia, Jayden, Kai'yan, K'Lynn, and another granddaughter on the way; his sisters Dorothea "Robin" Dukes of Passaic NJ, Renee Gary (Byron) of Springfield, VA, , and Rhonda Wallace (deceased); a brother, Rocky Wallace (Karen) of Lithonia GA, and a lifelong friend Kenneth Jones; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“Another Leaf Has Fallen”

Author Unknown

Another leaf has fallen,
Another soul has gone,
But still we have God's promises
In every robin's song.
For he is in His heaven
And though He takes away,
He always leaves to mortals,
The bright sun's kindly ray.
He leaves the fragrant blossoms
And lovely, forest green
And gives us new found comfort
When we on Him will lean.
