Obituary

Claudette Evelyn (Star) Lewis was born March 19, 1965 in St. John Antigua, West Indies. She was the first born to Warneford Lewis and Magdalene Williams. On Monday, December 8, 2014, she departed this early life.

Claudette was loved by everyone. She carried herself with class and elegance, if you knew Claudette you knew she loved to look good. We knew Claudette loved her family and would do anything to help someone. Claudette cherished the little things like receiving her grandson birthday every year she would do something special.

Upon graduating from high school, Claudette did not stop, she went on to enroll in college to better her education in nursing, however, she was always looking for future opportunity in getting ahead in her careers. Claudette always kept us laughing, whether it was what she said or what she did, she knew how to put a smile on your face.

Throughout her illness in the last months her thoughts were family and their well being. No matter what she was going through, Claudette would not want us to be sad, she did not want us to worry or dwell on her suffering. She lived life and smiled even in pain.

To family and friends, Claudette will be missing from family gatherings, and the 4th of July picnics, where she came with everything that you could eat, and ready to cook.

She will be remembered for her devotion to God and her family. She especially enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. Her family, friends and neighbors will miss her laughter and her warm words of encouragement.

Claudette loved her life to the fullest. Claudette loved everyone no matter where you were in life. There is so much to say about Claudette however, we will end by saying she leaves to cherish her memory, long love of her life, Adam Pinkston; her son, Tiquan Willie Lewis; her loving mother, Magdalena Williams; father, Warneford Lewis; one sister, Tracey Pereira; brother, Donald Lewis; two grandsons, Josiah and Julian Lewis; special sister friends, Connie Olds and Kimberly Murray; daughter-in-law, Dejenae Jackson; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

As Claudette begins her journey to see all the mysteries with the Lord, she will be missed.

To Those I Love

*When I am gone, just release me,
Let me move into my afterglow
You must not tie me down with your tears,
Let's be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time to travel on alone
So grieve for me awhile for greave you must
Then let your grief be comforted with trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart
And then when you come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home."*
