Reflections of Life

Jameir S. Hammond was born on March 28, 2002 in Paterson, NJ to Amika G. Tate and Jamont L. “Knowledge” Hammond.

He attended North Jersey Regional School of Totowa, New Jersey and Passaic County Elks Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center in Clifton, NJ before moving to New Brunswick. After moving, Jamier attended Bright Beginnings School in Piscataway.

“Jah Jah” as he was affectionately called was born with Cerebral Palsy. He was a lively child and enjoyed watching his big screen television and listening to music specifically Alicia Keyes.

He also loved when his family would talk around him as he enjoyed their conversations. “Jah Jah” would often play sleep when his aunts Judy and Kisha came into the room talking too loudly. He could not speak but he made his presence and requests known with his many facial expressions.

Jameir is predeceased by his maternal great grandfather, Julian Tate; maternal great grandmother, Sandra Nelson; paternal great grandparents, Edward and Viola Hammond.

Jamier S. “Jah Jah” Hammond received his angelic wings on Friday, December 5, 2014 peacefully at home with his mother Amika.

He leaves to cherish wonderful memories his mother, Amika G. Tate; father, Jamont L. Hammond; siblings, Joshua, Da’Nazia, Tori and Jacqueline; grandmothers, Sheila Tate and Leona Hammond; grandfathers, Charles “Chuck” Nelson, Jr. and Galen Moore; great grandmother, Mama Vivian; Two Pop Pops: Paul A. Gordon and Curtis Thompson; aunts, Kisha, Quilla and Kenobia; uncle Anthony; great aunts, Regina, Marcy, Bonita, Verna, Colaine, Val and Judy; great uncles, Paul, Michael, Ernest, John, Matthew, Eric, Ricardo, Bret and Julian, Jr.; and a host of cousins, other relatives, caregivers and classmates.

From Earth to Heaven our baby boy Jameir will live on in our hearts and in God’s Arms....

Borrowed

By: Hazel Gay Lee ©2013

I borrowed you for the moment
The moment turned to days
The days then turned to years
And the years just slipped away
I borrowed you for a season
We had no guarantees
We weathered every storm
And embraced every breeze
I borrowed you for the decades
I knew our love would last
I forgot that you were borrowed
In a blur the decades passed.
We thought we had tomorrow
Just like we had yesterday
We thought we had forever
But forever was today
I borrowed you for eternity
For eternity has no time
So I will keep you for eternity
Wrapped around this heart of mine
