Reflections of Alexander's Life

Alexander Hall, affectionately known as "Jug" was born February 8, 1955 in Rock Hill, South Carolina to the loving parents of JB McMullen and Ruth England.

His family moved to New York where he attended the public school system and later in life worked in a grocery store until his death.

Alexander was a lovable and kind person to his family and friends. Alexander was preceded in death by his sister, Barbara Hall and twin brothers, Harry and Larry Hall.

He leaves to mourn his loving memories, his mother; Ruth England, brother; Willie Leon Hall, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and a special person, his God Daughter; Skylar Simon.

He is gone but not forgotten.

“Remembrance”

*I could not bear my cross alone
So weak and worn was I
But Jesus came himself to help
And soon my tears were dry.
It broke my heart to leave my Mother,
dear friends and loved ones I adore.
Although I knew earth's sadness ends
At Heavens golden door.
For this is a journey we all must take
No matter where or when
Keep precious memories for my sake
Until we meet again.*
