Obituary

Rosetta (Smith) Haith entered into eternal peace on Saturday, December 13, 2014 at St. Barnabas Hospital. Rosetta was born July 22, 1943, in Newark, NJ.

Rosetta was also known as Rose grew up in Newark, NJ where she attended the Newark Public School systems. Rosetta was employed at United Hospital for many years leaving on disability,

Rosetta was the matriarch and protector of her family. She enjoyed music, traveling, culture and life. She instilled independence and a sense of self in her family and others.

A devoted mother, she leaves to her memories: her children, Valerie Brooks, Sharlette Smith, Roderick Smith and Addrienne Smith; her grandchildren, Nakiyah Smith, Basheer Smith, Steven Davis, Maya Smith, Aminah Smith, Abdul Khalid Smith and Zuri Smith; four great grandchildren, she also leaves her brothers, Larry and Calvin Brooks and her sister Rochelle Brooks-Carter.

She was predeceased by her parents, Henry and Nancy Brooks, her siblings, Glovina Dukes, Dorothy White, Muhammad Abd Al Shakur, Lila Brooks and grandson, Na'eem Smith.

She will be missed!

We Will Be Together

I know you can't see me, I know you're sad
I see your tears, I know you feel bad
I watched your sadness, but I am there
I am with you, I follow you everywhere
No matter what, I cannot come home.
I don't want you sad, being on your own
Please try for me to live your life
Don't worry I'll be there in your plight
I am missing you, like you miss me too
But I want you to live your life through
We will be together again in time
Please try for me to be happy, I'm fine
Remember our happy memories with love
I'm doing ok here in heaven above

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
