Obituary

Charlie Robert Williams II was born in Greenville, South Carolina to Helen and Charlie Williams, February 7, 1925. Charlie had four siblings, Frances Young, Blanch Zimmerman, John Louis Williams, and Lula Mae White. All of whom are deceased except the youngest sister, Lula Mae White.

Charlie's father died during the depression, so he decided to quit school to help support his mother and siblings. At the age of 19, Charlie was drafted into the United States Navy where he served for two years. During that time he met and married his wife, Otelia Marie and had two children, Felicia Clark and Charlie Jr. Unfortunately Charlie Jr., his son, died in October of this year.

Otelia Marie and Charlie were married for 50 years until his wife's death in 1978.

Charlie was employed with the Appex Cleaning Company for 30 years, where he worked as a supervisor for 10 years before retiring.

Charlie was a private person but liked people and people seemed to like him as well. Although not one of Jehovah's Witnesses, throughout the years he came to think highly of the Witnesses and when his eyes still allowed him to read he enjoyed reading The New World Translation of The Holy Scriptures and many of the books published by Jehovah's Witnesses. When Charlie's wife was alive he occasionally attended the congregation meetings, as well as a few conventions with her.

Charlie is survived by: his daughter, Felicia Clark, his grandson, Charles Lee Clark, Jr., his sister, Lula Mae White and nieces and nephews who have the happy hope of seeing Charlie Sr., his son, Charlie Jr. and his wife once again during the resurrection Jehovah God promises.
