How lucky was I to have a sister like Cynthia. She always called me and kept me on my toes. Cynthia always asked questions to make me think and she was always there for me. When Cynthia was younger she liked to follow me around so she could learn from me. We were brother and sister and as close as we could be. Now, a piece of me is missing and there is no way to replace her. Loveable CC I miss you so much.

- Alan T.

I am really crushed by the loss of my partner Loveable CC, who I gave the name STM (sweeter than me). I miss her more than words can say.

- Charlie

To my sister-in-law, who I will love forever, I hope you find peace knowing that your family left behind are surrounded by love and always will be. Our caring thoughts will always be with you.

- Maria Taylor

Although, I cannot profess to know my sister that well, to me she was one of the most genuine, honest, warm and free-spirited people I have had the pleasure to get to know. My prayer for my sister is that her soul finds the love and peace that seemed to sometimes elude her in life. For her children and grandchild, to always remember how much their mother, grandmother loved them.

- Michael Taylor

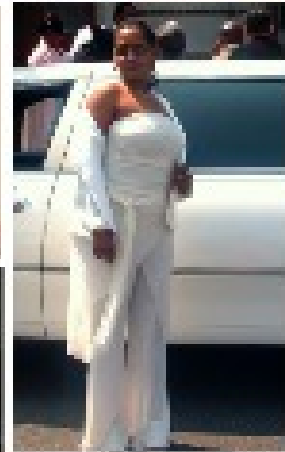

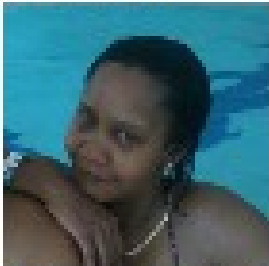

I always said to my Dear Prima Cynthia: God has a wonderful plan for each person. The fullness of our hearts is expressed in our eyes, in our touch and in our words. My Dear Prima Cynthia touched many lives... sleep on my Prima, love 4 ever.

- Cuzin Judy

I loved and admired my sister, she was tough, crazy, funny, sweet and genuinely a good hearted woman. I will miss her with all my heart.

- Tanya Taylor

Obituary

Cynthia “loveable C.C.” Taylor was born on December 15, 1962 in Harlem Hospital to Gloria Lewis (Deceased) and Father Robert Taylor Sr. (Deceased). She was the 4th of 7 children. Around 1965 the family moved from Harlem, N.Y. to Manhattan’s lower west side. She attended PS 11 Elementary and IS 70 Intermediate School. There she got her first nickname, “Shrimp-o-mighty”. Although Cynthia was a little thing, she was also a tomboy and really liked doing all the things her brothers did. Upon her Father’s passing, in 1977, she, her sister Kathy and brother Alan moved to (LA) Laurelton in Queens, N.Y. where they lived with their aunt and uncle. Cynthia attended Springfield Gardens H.S. It was in Queens that her passion for music took hold and started to grow. Cynthia was taught, by her brother Alan, how to ‘MC’ and ‘Rock the Turntables’. Together along with their cousins they started a DJ group called T-Production Crew. Cynthia also formed the first female rap group with four friends called the “Force of the Four Mcs”. They were very successful in Queens and because Cynthia could do it all, people came to see the female DJ and MC, now called “CC”. They played at many house parties, in the parks and Centers all over, even starting some events in Queens that continue until this day.

Cynthia moved to the Bronx with her sister in the early eighty's and her music passion flourished. Her brother Alan eventually moved there too and once again they were a dynamic duo. They formed T-Production2 Crew with “Loveable CC” and new artists; once again along with their friends becoming a top Drawing Group, this time in the Boogie down Bronx. Throughout her music journey she met, watched, schooled and nurtured many artists and friends, a lot of whom are here with us today. Cynthia stayed in the Bronx, working for the State of NY at a facility for functional adults and also for the Icon Copy Company. She had a daughter, Ashley Barbee, and for a while it was truly Ashley and Cynthia against the world. Later she had a son, Aron who rounded out their family.

As many of you know, Cynthia had ups and downs in her life which sometimes sent her down a dark path, but through it all, it was her love of music and family that kept her going.

Cynthia is survived by her daughter, Ashley; son, Aron; granddaughter, Marley; sister, Kathy; brother, Alan (Alan T); brother, Rob (Master Robb); sister, Tanya; brother, Mike and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family and friends who loved her dearly.

On November 27, 2014 Cynthia left this plane to play music on another. Now she will put on the show she always wanted to play but for the Lord and the family she is with above. We all love her and will miss her dearly.

A woman with dark hair and sunglasses, wearing a white strapless dress with a white shawl draped over her shoulders, stands in a lush garden. The garden is filled with various trees, including one with bright yellow flowers and another with pink cherry blossoms. The background shows a clear blue sky and a path leading through the garden.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincerest thanks for all acts of kindness shown in our time of loss.
