Reflections of Life

James Willis (Buck-o) Daye, Sr. was born July 11, 1940 in Alpoco, West Virginia to Davis and Mary Daye. He was educated by the Alpoco School System graduating from Alpoco High School in Alpoco, West Virginia. After relocating to Paterson NJ, James found employment at Fisher Scientific in Fair Lawn, NJ until retiring after thirty-five years of service. Buck-o loved his family and enjoyed bowling, watching sports (NY GIANTS) and western television shows.

He departed this life on Saturday, December 20, 2014. He is preceded in death by his father, Davis Daye, daughter, Veronica Daye, sister, Loretha Curtis and brothers, Clark and Michael Daye.

He leaves to cherish: his lovely wife and caretaker, Gloria Daye; two sons, James Jr. and Davis Daye; two daughters, Latricia Daye and Keisha Curry; one son-in-law, Kevin Wade all of Paterson, NJ; three brothers, Peter Daye, Jr. of Paterson, NJ, Lewis Daye of Buckley, West Virginia and Wilard Levicy of Roanoke, VA; one sister, Elizabeth Lee of Ohio; one aunt, Edna Daye of Appomattox, West Virginia; his mother-in-law, Virginia Gatling; two brothers-in-law, James Ruffin (Cora) all of Ahoskie, NC and David Ruffin (Willa) of Muffersbora, NC; four sisters-in-law, Etherine, Roxanne and Sybil Gatling and Regina White (Horrace) all from Ahoskie, NC; ten grandchildren, Quatia and Shamiya Geathers, Tashera, Najee and Kazir Daye, Tuhray Smith, Aayan Wade, Taquan Thomas, Xavier McCray and Tahaun Frye; four great grandchildren, Zyion, Zaniy and Elijah Irving and Veronica Daye all of Paterson, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

These are Buck-o 10 word commandments that he said and lived by everyday

1. Glo
2. Now
3. I didn't eat in three days
4. Sedately
5. Never worry
6. This way and that way over here and over there
7. Brother man
8. Big time
9. Cautious
10. That's the ball game Hey glo!!.

What you doing ? I'm hungry now! I didn't eat in three days. And you can tell everybody don't be sitting there looking all sad and sedately. Brother man A! I lived my life big time and I enjoyed my family and my name was cautious, so never worry, so tell them live your lives and keep doing what they doing this way and that way over here and over there and that's the ball game!!!!
