Obituary

Daisy Lucille Ellerbee Poole was born May 8, 1925 in Cheraw, South Carolina to Lucille and Columbus Ellerbee. She was educated in the Cheraw District School System and graduated from Coach Memorial Academy with Honors. Her passion was playing basketball.

Daisy relocated to Elizabeth, New Jersey after graduation. There she met and married Wiley Poole. From this union a son, Nathaniel Quinton Poole, was born. Daisy united with Hopewell Baptist Church in 1982 where she was a devoted member of various departments and served faithfully in all of them. She was a diligent member of the Willing Workers and the choir, which she loved greatly.

Daisy passed away peacefully in her sleep at Delaire Nursing Home in Linden, NJ on December 24, 2014.

Daisy Poole leaves to cherish her many memories: her son, Nathaniel Poole and his wife, Wandia; three grandchildren, Shondalyn Gales (Steven), Lakeisha Poole and Natalie Foreman (Trevelle); six great grandchildren, Shaney, Dominique, Amari, Steven, Nathaniel and Anaya; one great-great grandchild, M'Leah; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

God Saw You

God saw you getting weary,
So He did what He thought best
He came and stood beside you
And whispered, "come and rest".
You bade no one a last farewell,
Not even a goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
God saw the road getting rough;
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine".
The weary hours, the days of pain,
The sleepless nights are past
The ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
