Obituary

Emma Jean Montgomery (Emma) was called home to rest on January 2, 2015 at University Hospital in Newark, New Jersey. She was born October 18, 1950 in Hawkinsville, Georgia to the late J.C. and Ella Wiley.

Emma was educated in the Newark Public School System. She was employed at UMDNJ as a security guard and home health aide before her illness.

Emma had a beautiful smile and she loved her family. She was a member of Gethsemane Baptist Church where she faithfully served as President of the Nurses Unit and the Hospitality Unit. She served on the executive board of the churches nurses union of the State of NJ as the Financial Secretary. She had many rolls in the church and she was always willing to help. She enjoyed serving the Lord and doing his work.

Emma was preceded in death by her two sons, Anthony and Kenneth Wiley.

Emma leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, William Montgomery; two granddaughters, Lashonda and Taneshia Farmer; two sisters, Mary Wiley and Charlie Mae Salter; one nephew and two nieces; four great nephews and one great niece; five aunts and one uncle; four brothers-in-law and one sister-in-law; and a host of cousins, friends and one God daughter.

Emma was strong. She gave her illness a good battle as she fought until the end. The battle is over, so rest in peace.

We will miss you, Emma!

To Those I Love

To Those Whom I Love And Those Who Love Me
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we have had so many years
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love each has shown
But now it is time I travelled on alone
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust
It is only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories in your heart
I will not be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
Then, when you must come this way alone
I will greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."
