Obituary

Nora Lipscomb was born to the late Margaret and James Sterling on November 29th, 1944 in Wilmington, Delaware. While growing up in Wilmington she attended the Delaware public school system. Eventually Nora's parents moved the family to New York City. Nora attended Benjamin Franklin High School in New York and graduated in June 1965. She continued her education and became a dietician. Nora worked as a dietician at Joint Disease Hospital and North General until it closed in 2010. Nora worked for the Health and Hospitals Corporation for 39 years preparing the menus and visiting the patients to make sure they had the proper diet.

Nora was a happy lively person who enjoyed life - she loved going out with her co-workers and friends on the weekends.

On Sundays, she attended along with her mother Margaret, Mount Calvary Baptist Church at 231 West 142nd Street, New York, NY, Rev. Dr. Abolph Roberts Pastor.

Nora joined Mount Tabor Chapter #35 the Eastern Star on September 19th, 1989, she became the Worthy Matron in January 1999. She also became a member of Naomi Court in 2000. Nora was very active in both organizations until her illness.

Nora married Charlie Lipscomb, the love of her life and they remained together until he preceded her in death. Nora leaves to mourn: a daughter, Trimaine Lipscomb; a brother, Lorenzo Sterling; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you,
my loved ones, all so dear.
But you see, the Master Called ME.
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation,
A heaven bound ticket for one.
And I knew that he would call me,
when he felt my work was done.
I know your hearts are heavy because I have gone away.
But when the Master Called Me,
I knew I could not stay, yes, I am sorry I had to leave you, my loved ones
all so dear, but you see, the Master Called Me, and, now I am resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory and, to you all I say, just stay in the hands of Jesus and we will meet again someday.
