Obituary

Lucienne Dejean Brierre was born in Petion-ville, Haiti on March 19, 1938 to Charles Montales Dejean and Charite Louis Dejean. She was the first one born in the family. She departed from this life on Saturday January 3, 2015 at 12:34 pm.

Lucienne was married to Gerad Defay. From this union one son was born, Jean Benito Defay. She was divorced and remarried Mr. Joseph Brierre for thirty-seven years.

She resided in Irvington for over thirty years and Texas for five. She worked as an assembler at Roselle Paper in Roselle, New Jersey and at EI Rob Manufacturing for nine years until she retired. She was also a good seamstress.

She is survived by: her husband, Joseph Brierre; her son, Jean Benito Defay; grandchildren, Eric, Karen, James, Lucy and Christopher; brothers, Lionel, Fred, André Dejean and Daniel; sisters, Marie Plaisimond, Marie Gaspard, Rose Dejean and Marie Dejean; brothers-in-law, Fred Gaspard and Thene Derima; sisters-in-law, Emma Dejean, Tania Dejean and Daniella Dejean; four great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning.
Tears are for the sad.

I left to be with Jesus.
And this should make you glad.

Don't lose the love I gave you.
Feed it with devotion,
And spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way.

We'll have another meeting on God's eternal day.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to thank all who have extended support for, spoken a kind word to, or done some act of kindness during their time of bereavement. May God bless each of you for your thoughtfulness and concern.
