Obituary

Nettie Cheeseboro was born on November 7, 1956 to Frances and Henry Cheeseboro. Frances later remarried and Nettie was raised by a loving and devoted step-father, Dow R. Wright. Nettie was educated in the Newark and Hillside Public School Districts. Nettie also completed a nursing program at Manpower Inc. where she received her nursing assistant's certification. Nettie worked in several hospitals under this title.

Nettie loved people and touched the lives of many. She was high spirited, fun loving and often worked part-time bartending in her younger days. Nettie met people from all walks of life. She was described as being "real" and non-judgmental.

Nettie had a strong Christian foundation, and she attended church often. Nettie loved to speak about the Lord and willingly shared her past experiences to help and inspire others. She knew that she had a testimony. Nettie was a fighter and, even in the midst of illness, she had faith. Nettie's last words were, "Thank you God." Nettie departed this life on January 4, 2015 with her family at her bedside.

Nettie Cheeseboro leaves to cherish her memory: her loving and faithful parents, Frances and Dow Wright; three sons, Willie, Omar (Mujadala) and Calvin Cheeseboro; one daughter, Sharhea Cheeseboro; two sisters, Cynthia L. Brown and Teresa I. Wright-Johnson (Marvin); sister-in-law, Remender Summers; seven grandchildren, Imani, Omar, Maya, Zakiyah, Calvin Jr., Alyjah and Nia; nieces and nephews, Monique, Raheim, John, Baneeshia, William, Ashlee, Typhany and Terrell; her companion, Willie Skipper; an "adopted" daughter, Khadijah Muhammad; special friends, Crystal McCray and "Red"; and a host of aunts, uncles, great nieces and nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Nettie was preceded in death by one sister, Tracy and two brothers, Melvin and Dow, Jr.

A Mantra For Nettie

My beloved sister you were one of a kind, Another like you we will never find. You had a bold, beautiful spirit and the way that you lived your life, the courage to face adversity and to overcome strife.

Traveling your own path, not living inside of my box, Bumps and bruises at times, your path sometimes unorthodox. Taking your experiences and using them to teach, proving that when we fall, we can get back on our feet.

Even in your final days we could see your light, Although there were tears and sorrow you knew that you'd be alright. At that very moment, when God said "welcome home" It hurt us so to say good-bye yet we know that we are not alone.

*One day I know that we will meet again in the City of Gold,
And once again we will rejoice from the stories that we told.
And on that day we will embrace as if we were never apart,
My dearest Nettie until that day I will carry you in my heart.*

2015 Teresa Wright-Johnson
