Reflections of Life

Denise Louise Campbell was born on October 21, 1955 in New York City and was called home on January 12, 2015. Her parents, William and Norma Campbell, and her brother, William (Billy), preceded her in death.

In 1978, Denise gave birth to Raymond, who to this very day is warm, kind, tender, loving and caring. Both he and his mother formed a unique bond as young mother and young son who grew close in spirit.

Denise attended P.S. 191, Jr. H.S. 44 and Charles Evans Hughes High School in New York City where she met and fell madly in love with Ronald Albert. Together they produced three loving children, Ronald, Ross and Rasmine whom Denise adored immensely. She was mother, friend and confidant to her children. Denise was a dedicated and devoted wife, and it is no secret that she was very fond of family ties and commitment. As Denise's children became more independent, she desired to give back to her Rego Park community so she went back to work as a school crossing guard. It turned out to be one of the most satisfying and heartfelt undertakings she had ever experienced.

Denise became so fond of those young students and was delighted to be able to assist them from day-to-day as they crossed the busy intersections. The students loved and adored Denise. Parents and students alike would actually give her cards and candy to show their gratitude and appreciation. This feat brought such joy and happiness to Denise's heart. Sweets for the Sweet was Denise's motto as she indulged in her fair share of goodies. However, nothing topped her favorite meal...spareribs, baked macaroni and cheese, collard greens, and for beverages, Denise loved cranberry juice and ginger ale which, in her book, was the ultimate.

Denise was extremely passionate about celebrating family birthdays and anniversaries, and as a ritual, would regularly send each and every family member an appropriate card filled with a little surprise. She was very giving, very caring, had a heart of gold and was very much appreciative of her family members and what each individual meant to her. If you knew Denise, you knew how much she enjoyed shopping, accessorizing and styling her naturally beautiful hair.

More of Denise's joys were: First, she was a proud grandmother; second, she was an avid computer game player; third, she loved "old school" music; and fourth, she really loved the "country" (namely, Nottoway County, VA). Denise is survived by Ronald, her loving and devoted companion and husband of 35 years; her four affectionate children: Raymond, Ronald, Ross and Rasmine (affectionately known as Razzzy); her three grandsons, Ron'Dre, Thiery and Aiden, and her two granddaughters, Paris-Riana and Azarra; her oldest and dear sister, Thelma; and a host of adoring uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and good friends who will all miss her dearly and sincerely.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
