Obituary

Cynthia Willis, daughter of the late Wilford Willis and Mildred Willis, was born in Newark, New Jersey on May 31st, 1947 and died on January 16, 2015.

She was raised on 29 North 5th Street with her grandmother, great aunt, four loving siblings along with nieces and nephews.

Cynthia Willis graduated in the class of 1965 from Central High School in the Newark area and had developed a passion to read at an early age. Consequently, that year she was employed by Newark Public Library. She was a devoted and vigorous worker, earmarking over forty plus years in service there until her blessed date to retire on April 1, 2013.

On January 31, 1973, she gave birth to a beautiful son, Rasheed-Amir Willis, while continuing her journey in life.

Cynthia had a happy loving soul, flanked the an outgoing party spirit. She enjoyed gatherings and traveling yearly.

She accepted Islam in the later days of her life and May Allah have mercy on her, expand her grave and place light within it; O Allah (The God) grant her Jannah (Paradise). Ameen.

Cynthia, leaves to cherish and pray for her: a son, Rasheed-Amir Willis; daughter-in-law, Shakirah Janet Gayles; two brothers, Tyrone and Wyatt Willis; loving family, Auntie Adrienne, Sharon and Kecia Dickens; nieces and nephews, Shaundell, Rodney, Kendell, Corey, Dwayne, Wyatt, Jr. and Kalimah; as well as a host of other family members and friends.

*In the name of God, the infinitely Compassionate and Merciful.
Praise be to God, Lord of all the worlds.
The Compassionate, the Merciful.
Ruler on the Day of Reckoning.
You alone do we worship,
and You alone do we ask for help.
Guide us on the straight path,
the path of those who have received your grace;
not the path of those who have brought down
wrath, nor of those who wander astray.
Amen.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest
words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there
at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You, Whatever the part.
