Obituary

Michael Elliot Williams-Wooden was born on December 3, 1989 in Bronx, New York to the late Anna Wooden and Elliot Williams Sr. He was raised by his adopted aunt, Regina Wooden.

Growing up, Michael played baseball for many years and participated in the church choir singing with his brothers. He was an active member of his community, working with children in the Summer Youth Camps for several summers where he was employed as a Camp Counselor. He attended the Lewis and Clark High School and was enrolled for several semesters in the Nyack Christian College.

Michael was a very loving, caring and unique person; He was one of a kind. Michael was truly the representation of love, as anyone he knew, knew how hard he loved. He was generous, kind, humble and never afraid or reluctant to help anyone. Michael was a true friend, brother, cousin, brother-in-law, godfather and uncle until the end. He was an excellent teacher, role model and words cannot begin to express the loss we are feeling.

Michael loved music; loved it like no other. He loved to listen to music from Nicki Minaj and he also loved Beyonce. He enjoyed a good party, loved being surrounded by his family and friends and he knew when to turn up. Michael seized every moment like it was his last. He enjoyed shopping and watching the latest movie being shown in the theater. Michael also enjoyed swimming while on his many escapes to Atlantic City with his family on any given weekend.

While suffering medically, Michael continued to give his all and was excited about moving in with his brother, Brian Wooden whom he adored more than anything. On January 16th, 2015, Michael was called home to be with the Lord.

Leaving to cherish his loving memories, he is survived by his adoptive mother, Regina Wooden, his father, Elliot Williams Sr., his brothers, Brian Wooden, John Wooden, Carlton E. Smith, Elliot Williams Jr. and Sean Williams, his sisters, Rosalind Burgess, Jahwana Thomas, Sharifa Wooden and Lasha Thomas, sister-in-law, Diana Wooden, godson, Keyon Green and many nieces and nephews and a host of relatives, friends and well-wishers.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card; or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent beautiful flowers; If so, we saw them there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, but just thought of us today. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much.
