Obituary

Only God knows when His children are tired, when their earthly journey is done, and when it's time for them to rest. God called home His beloved son, Richard Renee Kelly to sleep in peace on January 12, 2015.

Richard R. Kelly, the son of Richard Kelly and Delores Cleveland was born October 25, 1993. He grew up in John Adams Houses in the Bronx of New York where he aspired to play professional basketball. In September of 2013, "Black" as we knew him, received his General Education Diploma from the Osborne Association's Justice Community. His journey of steps was so short but his spirit is long lived and never forgotten.

Richard leaves behind the following to cherish his memory: his mother, Delores; his father, Richard; his two brothers, Arhmed and Tyrese; his grandparents, Mary and Adolph; his aunts, Ruby, Willie Mae, Monique, and Judy; his uncles, James, Jermaine and Tyrelle; as well as a host of cousins and friends throughout New York City and Charleston, South Carolina.

James 1:12

Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

Death Of A Son

One of the most tragic and traumatic losses life can deal out to a person is the death of a son. The death of a son means the loss of more than just a precious life. It represents the loss of future experiences and future hopes. No parent is prepared for the loss of a child, and when it happens, their world is changed forever. The grief, guilt, and anguish felt are acute and lasting. Parents can find comfort in knowing that their grief and mourning are normal and that many other parents have lived through similar tragedies.
