Obituary

Bertram Archer, known to many of his friends and family as “Pepsi”, was born to the late Milton Archer and Ethel Greene on May 1, 1930 in Trinidad and Tobago. He was the youngest child and only boy of four children.

He was the ex-husband of the now-deceased Muriel Sorzano, whom he married in 1957, and Jacqueline Bailey to whom he was married in 1991.

Bertram spent the first thirty-seven years of his life in his native Trinidad before moving to the US Virgin Islands in 1967 and eventually settled in New York, USA, where he spent most of his remaining years from 1970 to the time of his passing on January 21, 2015.

Bertram was the brother of the late Cleothilde Martin, the later Edith Lewis, and the late Hildred Archer.

He is survived by: his only child, Ken Archer and his daughter-in-law, Marcia; three grandchildren, Russell Archer, Maia Archer, and Kwesi Alleyne; and numerous nephews and nieces and other relatives.

May his soul rest in peace and light perpetually shine upon him.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
