Obituary

Mrs. Betty J. Womble, resident of East Orange, NJ passed away on Tuesday, January 13, 2015 at Clara Maass Medical Center.

Betty was born October 8, 1943 in Albany, Georgia to the late Elijah and Minnie L. Sperling. She was raised in Newark, NJ with her two sisters, Yvonne Williams and Elizabeth Sperling. She was a graduate of South Side High School in Newark. On April 8, 1962, she married the late Cleveland J. Womble Jr. From this union came Cleveland Womble III, Gwendolyn D. Womble, Maurice A. Womble, Barry E. Womble, Dana Womble, Shonda L. Agbabiaka and Natasha Y. Womble.

Betty's most notable attributes were her love for family and unwavering faith in God. She dedicated her life to doing her best as a wife, mother and grandmother. In these roles she was also a very dear friend. As a sister, she was loving, kind, and considerate. Betty was a joy to be around and very easy to talk to. Fourteen years ago Betty was baptized as a Jehovah Witness. She dedicated herself to becoming a servant for Jehovah. She loved to travel, taking countless trips throughout her life. She enjoyed music, classic Motown being her favorite.

Betty spent the first part of her life as a homemaker. She began working part-time at Goody Products, Inc. while attending a business program at Essex County Vo-Tech. After completing the program she left Goody Products, Inc. and began her seventeen year career at Prudential Insurance.

Betty leaves to grieve her seven children and six grandchildren, Malcolm A. Womble, Jennifer N. Womble, Sabrina N. Womble, Titilayo M. Agbabiaka, Ezra E. Newsome, and Temitayo J. Agbabiaka; son-in-law, Taoheed Agbabiaka; sisters, Yvonne Williams and Elizabeth Sperling; brother-in-law, John L. Smith. She also leaves a host of family and friends that will miss her.
