Obituary

Donald C. Seymore was the son of the late Grace Sydnor and Charles Seymore and went home to the Lord on January 14, 2015. He was born on August 5, 1936 at Newark Beth Israel Hospital in Newark, NJ where he spent most of his life and met his lifetime friend, Warren Slaten. Donald was a resident of Oceanside, CA for over nine years.

Donald was Honorably Discharged from the United States Air Force in 1962 and went on to start his career at Conrac which later became Smith Industries, this is when he met his longtime friends, Wally & Chuck. He also served on the Board of Directors for East Orange General Hospital for over twenty-five years, this is when he met his business partner, retired and joined Daniels Security Systems.

Donald loved to play tennis, bet on his horses at the Meadowlands Race Track and taking trips to Atlantic City. He was very active until his longtime struggle with heart problems didn't allow him too anymore. Even then, he didn't give up he would still swim and do his morning exercises and bike rides.

Donald leaves behind: his beloved and devoted wife of forty-eight years, Atilia Seymore; children, Marc Anthony and Antoinette Contreras; grandchildren, Tiffany, Marc Anthony II, Alejandro and Melissa Contreras; great-grandchild, Cadence Contreras; cousins, Peggy Ann, Dale, Donna and Greg Holland, Sylvia and Enrique Mercado.

Crossing Over

Oh, please don't feel guilty
It was just my time to go.
I see you are still feeling sad,
And the tears just seem to flow.
We all come to earth for our lifetime,
And for some it's not many years
I don't want you to keep crying
You are shedding so many tears.
I haven't really left you
Even though it may seem so.
I have just gone to my heavenly home,
And I'm closer to you than you know.
Just believe that when you say
my name, I'm standing next to you,
I know you long to see me,
But there's nothing I can do.
But I'll still send you messages
And hope you understand,
That when your time comes to across over, I'll be there to take your hand.
