Obituary

Kelvin Lee Lewis was born in Chester, South Carolina on February 25, 1964 to Clifton and Willene Johnson. He grew up in Manhattan, (Harlem) where he graduated from Martin Luther King Jr. High School in 1982.

Kelvin worked for many years at Municipal Credit Union, and 4-5 years with a printing shop. He also knew his way around the kitchen. He was a pretty good cook. One of the things that was the most amazing about Kelvin was his knowledge of the New York City subway system. All you had to do was tell him where you were going, and he'd tell you what train to take.

His greatest joy came when he was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses in 1994. He loved attending congregation meetings and having a regular share in field service, telling others about Jehovah God. Even though he spent the last several years in a nursing home because of declining health, he was able to share Bible truths with others.

Kelvin is survived by: his wife, Susan; his daughters, Shawntaya and Jasmine; his mother, Willene Lewis-Johnson; his brother, Clifton Donelle Lewis and his wife, Letecia; brothers and sisters-in-law; as well as aunts; uncles; nieces; nephews; and a host of friends.

"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Revelation 21:4

Song # 111 He Will Call (Job 14:13-15)

1. *Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:*

(CHORUS)

*He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand.*

2. *Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.*

(Chorus)
