Reflections of Life

Kia'Mani Talmadge was born in St. Joseph's Medical Center in Paterson, NJ on December 13, 2014. She was the pure baby daughter of Victoria Artis and Michael Talmadge. Her paternal grandparents are Michael Talmadge and Jacqueline Holman. Her maternal grandparents are Wilnay Bethelamy and Jennifer Artis.

Kia' Mani was a joyful, strong, and sweet baby. She was like an angel full of smiles, a special baby with pretty eyes and soft hair. Born without a cluttered mind, Kia' Mani brought nothing tangible into this world, but she did bring us something very important, the things that money can't buy. "Joy , peace, comfort, love, kindness and generosity. She opened our hearts making us reflect upon our faith in God and the gift of everlasting life. She also taught us how fleeting and uncertain life is, and how important it is for us to put our trust in the Giver of life, and count each day as a gift from Him.

Kia' Mani did not get a chance to see the cruel oppressive things going on in this world, but she did get to see her mother and papu. She was and always be for eternity Papu's special little girl.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one brother, Kiyoria Farrar; three sisters, Kia'-Maiyah, Corinthia and Mi-ajah Talmadge, all of Paterson, NJ; a special aunt, Linda Acevedo, other aunts, uncles, cousins and family friends who will always love and keep her memory alive in their hearts.

To Mommie and Papu

Don't grieve for me
I'm following the path God laid out for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I could not stay another minute.
Yes my time with you was brief
and I know my parting left a void.
I only ask that you fill it getting to know the Lord.

Acknowledgement

Michael and Victoria acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this difficult time.
