Reflections of Life

*For I am ready to be offered
The time of departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight to finish my course
I have kept the faith. 2nd Timothy 4:6-7*

God is too wise to make a mistake.

On Friday morning January 16, 2015, God visited St. Joseph's Hospital and called His soldier home to be with Him eternally.

Mother Eleanor Moore was born on December 12, 1931 in Blanch, North Carolina, to the late Warren and Louise Wilson Moore.

She attended the Yanceyville School System in North Carolina. At an early age, she joined the Hamer Baptist Church. In pursuit of a better life she moved to Paterson, New Jersey in the 60's.

Mother Eleanor Moore worked various jobs over the years including Republic Electronics and Universal. After several years she moved to Hackensack, New Jersey where she worked and attended church.

She relocated to Paterson and became a member of Deliverance Holy Tabernacle under the leadership of Apostle Dr. Walter L. Scott. Her desire was to be by her sister, Elizabeth's side. Mother Eleanor Moore loved working in the church. She served on the usher, nurses, and mother's board. She also sang in the church choir. She attended Bible school at the Deliverance Holy Tabernacle in Paterson. She also attended bible school in Nutley, New Jersey. She served in the church faithfully until her health began to fail.

After retiring she acquired a position as Grandparent for the North Jersey Development Center. Mother Eleanor Moore was a happy, jolly person. She loved reading her bible, cooking, and shopping with her friends, Ruby and Jeneane. She loved her entire family.

During her illness, her sisters, Inettie and Susanna, her brother, James, her niece, Theresa and nephew, Bryan traveled many miles over the highways to visit her. She expressed the joy within her, that they took time to care that much. Mother Eleanor Moore held a special place in her heart for her nephew, Joseph (JoJo). Whenever she was in need at home, he was there. He took buses, taxi cabs, acquired rides from friends and even walked across town to assist her with her needs. He also stuck by his mother (Elizabeth's) side to assist in moving Mother Moore to and from her bed, cooking and many other tasks. She loved attention and was very thankful for the abundance of attention and care she received from both of them.

Mother Eleanor Moore was preceded in death by her parents, Warren and Louise Wilson Moore, nine siblings, Luella Moore, Charles Moore, Mary Lownes, Jessie Moore, WhitRoy Moore, Ervin Moore, Dorothy Moore, Curtis Moore and Aaron Moore.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories: five siblings, James Moore and Inettie Banks of Washington, DC, Bessie Coleman of South Boston, VA, Elizabeth Wade of Paterson, NJ and Dr. Susanna M. Bell of Brown Summit, NC; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and other family and friends. One dedicated god-daughter, Prophetess Syretta Chestnut of Paterson, NJ; two special friends, Ruby Gause and Jeneane Randolph of Paterson, NJ, Apostle Dr. Walter L. Scott and first lady and the entire church family.

Eleanor

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you never went alone,
For a part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

A million times we will miss you,
A million times we have cried,
If love could have saved you,
You never would have died.

To the grave you travel,
Our flowers placed with care,
No one knows our heartache,
As we turn to leave you there.

Eleanor, if tears could build a stairway,
And memories could make a lane,
We would walk right up to heaven,
And bring you home again.
