Obituary

Khendrai Marcel Williams was born on November 12, 1985. He was the loving son of Matosha Williams Rivera, Ken Walker, stepfather, Eduardo Rivera and stepmom, Lakeisha Walker. He attended the East Orange public schools in his early years and later attended the North Plainfield public schools where he played football. There he was given the nickname “Wop”. He continued his education at Union County College, Cranford Campus.

Khendrai held several jobs including Maintenance for North Plainfield Board of Education (while in HS), Harold's, Gray's Florist, UPS, FedEx, Job Haines Home and others. He was currently employed with Rezkom Enterprises Inc. Khendrai tried his hand at entrepreneurship and created his own fashion logo called Gr8 P3rc3pt1onz where he was CEO. He was very passionate about his logo which could be found on hats, t-shirts, shirts, hoodies, sweat shirts, jackets and more. He was looking forward to great things with Gr8 P3rc3pt1onz.

Khendrai was a handsome, gentle and kind hearted person. He was genuinely liked by all who made his acquaintance. He enjoyed family outings, dinners, trips, and graffiti art. Khendrai also had a love for all genres of music especially “Hip Hop”. This love evolved into the hobby of producing beats and DJing. He was good on the turn tables and was called "DJ K Trackman". Most of all, he valued the special relationships he had with his loved ones. With his big sense of humor, Khendrai enjoyed life to the fullest. He loved that his little sister referred to him as her “little brother” and she is only 5 years old. Although he did not attend church regularly, he loved God and always gave Him thanks.

Khendrai is preceded in death by his grandmother, Neva Williams, grandfather, Elmo and uncle, Elmo.

Khendrai will rest peacefully with his Muma. He will truly be missed but not forgotten.

Khendrai leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Matosha Williams Rivera; father, Ken Walker; stepfather, Eduardo Rivera; stepmom, Lakeisha Walker; siblings, Neva, Brent, Keshawn, Bryant, Marcus, Sydney, step-sisters, Erika, Tonia, Elizabeth and step-brother, Eddie Jr.; grandparents, Jimmy Williams Sr. and Sherri Walker; uncles, Jimmy, Raynard, Maniq, and Calvin; aunts, Crystal and Sharonda; a special friend, Deannah and a host of other dear family and friends.

To Say Goodbye

To say goodbye is not the end
To all my family and friends
For life goes on, you must endure
For my eternity is sure.
Remember all the good times
The memories we've shared
The precious jewels of laughter
The tender love and care.
I found my resting place
God's peace surrounds my soul
Let love abound in all your hearts
Let heaven be your goal.
