Just For Today

Thy strength, oh Lord, just for this day I pray you will impart for me again renew my faith As this new day I start. Reach out to me and keep Thy hand on everything I do. Direct my path to things undone And guide to paths a new. Give me the patience that I need to do for others now the things that you would have me do and kindly show me how. Through doubts and fears, and heavy loads I struggle on my way, yet through the rugged path I know that you are near today. You steer my feet and left my heart and make the light to shine. Then all my troubles, aches and pains I gladly leave behind.
