She was raised and educated in the Asbury Park public school system. All who knew her can agree that she was a very humble and loving person. As a great mother to all of her children, she did her very best to steer them in the right direction. Dolores eventually moved to Orlando Florida and for the past seven years, she was employed as a teacher's assistant for Kindergarten and First grade students. While in Florida she enjoyed strolling through her favorite stores, Wal-Mart and Big-Lots.
