Reflections of Martha White

Martha White was born in South Carolina to the proud parents of Perry and Lilly White. Martha was born on January 23, 1920 and went to school in South Carolina and then moved to New York. She first moved to Harlem, New York and then to the Bronx where she resided the rest of her life. Martha loved to cook and boy, was she a good cook.

She spent most of her life in New York helping people. She worked for the Legal Aid Society because of her love of helping others. Years ago she converted to Islam and changed her name to Mateen Shabazz, and helped others to convert.

She leaves to mourn: her nephew, Claude Washington; his children, Calvin Washington, Emily Washington, Fatima Washington, Betsie Washington, and Taeon Washington; niece, Sandy William (Demetrius), their two children, Victor Johnson and Demeshia William; her good friends, Gigi and Fifi; and a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family

Come To Me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*
