Obituary

Born on November 27, 1922 in New Eagle, Pennsylvania, Ruth was the eldest daughter of Samuel and Blanche Miller. After graduating from high school in Pennsylvania, Ruth moved to Montclair, New Jersey. This is where she met Jasper Fuller who was to become her husband. From this union were born three sons, Robert, Lawrence, and James.

Ruth spent over thirty years as an employee at Charms' candy company in Bloomfield. After leaving Charms, Ruth became employed at Organon pharmaceutical company, where she was employed for almost ten years before retiring.

Having had the opportunity to travel and to spend time with family and friends, Ruth led an active life. Often bringing together family, Ruth prepared large dinners and holiday celebrations at her home; she made an amazing apple pie from scratch. Ruth made everything from scratch! As a member of the Messiah Baptist Church congregation for over fifty years, Ruth served as treasurer of the Church's Women's Missionary.

Ruth was predeceased by both of her parents, her husband, Jasper and her siblings: Samuel Miller, Louise Thorpe, Joseph Miller, Nancy Steed, and George Miller.

Ruth leaves to mourn her passing, her sons, Robert (Lynn) of Glen Ridge, Lawrence of East Orange and James (Deborrah) of Piscataway; "Gram", as she was affectionately called, also leaves to mourn her passing, seven grandchildren, Kanika of Highland Park, Tanisha of Piscataway, Robert Jr. of Massachusetts, Janel of Dunellen, Jaymes of North Brunswick, Ashley Reves (Dane) of Piscataway, and Kerri of Glen Ridge; as well as five great-grandchildren, Tamir, Tyla, Dane Reves, Jr., Tiphany, and Dorian Reves; her surviving brother, Donald Miller of Pennsylvania; and a host of other family members and friends.

May she Rest in Peace.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
