Obituary

Ethel Dee Robinson was born November 24, 1923 in Lackawanna, NY. She was the sixth child out of ten born to the late Major and Gertrude Jones. She attended public school, in Newport News, Virginia.

Ethel and her husband, the late William Robinson, were childhood sweethearts and they graduated from Huntington High School in Newport News, Virginia. They were united in marriage on April 25, 1947. From this union, they had three children, one daughter and two sons; Ivy Lovengood, William A. Robinson, and the late Reginal Robinson. Ethel and William moved from Newport News, Virginia to Newark, New Jersey in 1956. She was married to William Robinson for 63 years.

Ethel was employed as a domestic worker and in the cleaning service at the federal building for many years in Newark. She and her husband were devoted Jehovah's Witness, and attended the Kingdom Hall and many Assemblies together.

Ethel loved different types of music, especially Duke Ellington, and Sarah Vaughn. She loved visiting the Newark Museum, Broadway Shows, and she loved to dance.

She leaves to cherish her memory; two half brothers, Leo and Furman Jones; her sister, Mable Burno and her brother, Simon Jones; her daughter, Ivy Lovengood; her son, William A. Robinson; seven grandchildren, Tiffany, Harry and Topaz Lovengood, Kimberly, Kyle, Kenneth (Shanna) Robinson, and Noishe' Barnes; ten great-grandchildren, Shaniya Lovengood, Sabriyya Lovengood, Justen Davis, Brittany Lovengood, Joseph Martinez, Jason Lovengood and Jawan Burr, Rahshawn Dorsey, Raheem, Elijah, and Micah Ingram. Also survived by a host of nieces, nephews cousins and friends.

111 - He Will Call

(Job 14:13-15)

Life, like a mist, appears for just a day,
Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away,
Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again?
Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer.
They shall live at his command.
For he will have a longing
For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder,
For our God can make us stand.
And we shall live forever,
As the work of his own hand.

Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken.
All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken.
Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

Life Without End—At Last!

(John 3:16)

Can you see with your mind's eye,
Peoples dwelling together?
Sorrow has passed. Peace at last!
Life without tears or pain.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
"Life without end, at last!"
In those days old will grow young,
Flesh revived as in childhood.
Troubles are gone, from now on,
No need to weep or fear.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
"Life without end, at last!"
Paradise all will enjoy
As we sing of God's glory.
Long as we live, we will give
To God, our Maker, thanks.

(CHORUS)

Sing out with joy of heart!
You too can have a part.
Live for the day when you'll say,
"Life without end, at last!"

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
