Ra'meek was a loving strong angel. His smiles and the sounds of him saying, “mommy”, always brightened everyone’s day. He was a strong soldier who fought a good fight until the very end.

Ra'meek is survived by: his mother, Michelle Quantay Brant; father, Robert Dwayne Sanders; one sister, Ma'kiyah Michelle Brant; one brother, Samaad Yaniser Price; maternal grandmother, LaQuanna Smith-Frierson of East Orange, NJ; maternal grandfather, Robert Sanders Sr.; maternal great grandparents, Mary Boles and Mildridge Boles of Newark, Delaware; paternal great grandmother, Yvonne Sanders; Godmother, Alicia Cox; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, church family and very supportive friends.

Psalm 139:13-16

¹³ For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb. ¹⁴ I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well. ¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

¹⁶ Your eyes saw my unformed substance; in your book were written, every one of them, the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.

HEAVEN'S ROCKING CHAIR

*Are there rocking chairs in Heaven
where little babies go?
Do the angels hold you closely and rock you to and fro?*

*Do they talk silly baby talk to get a smile or two,
and sing the sleepy lullabies
I used to sing to you?*

*My heart is aching for you,
my angel child so dear.*

*You brought such joy into my life,
the short time you were here.*

*I know you're in a happy place,
and in God's loving care.
I dream each night I'm rocking you in Heaven's rocking chair.*
