Obituary

Charlie Williams was born June 3, 1919 in Augusta, GA to the late Virginia and Joe Williams. He moved to New Jersey at the age of twenty-five. God saw fit to call him home at the age of 95 on January 27, 2015 at 4:30 AM at East Orange General Hospital.

Charlie was the eldest child of ten siblings who he helped raise. He was the Jack of all Trades, doing his best at a young age to support his family. He was a boat engineer in Florida, and he built barracks in Fort Monmouth. He retired from the GAF Chemical Plant in Linden, NJ where he worked for 38 years.

Charlie was the head of maintenance for New Hope Baptist Church. Then in 1982 he joined the church and devoted his life to the Lord. He was an active member, faithful servant, deacon and member of the board of trustees until he became ill.

Charlie was preceded in death by his wife, Helen Williams, his son, Leslie Williams, granddaughter, Regina Baker, grandson, Jurell Williams, great granddaughter, Nasiah Baker, sisters, Trustee Williams-Blunt and Inez Wilson, and three brothers, David Benjamin, Peter Benjamin and James Benjamin.

Charlie Williams leaves behind: three daughters, Hattie Mae Hunter, Phyllis Williams and Joyce Baker; two sons, Stanley Williams and Charles 'Tony' Williams; 11 grandchildren, 32 great grandchildren, 37 great-great grandchildren and 1 great-great-great grandchild; two sisters, Corrine Avery and Virginia Jackson; one brother, Frank Benjamin; a dear friend, Judy Baker Hardgrove; and a host of nieces, nephews, close friends and church family to cherish his memories.
