Obituary

Kyzeir Unique Kyllis Baker was born October 7, 1999 in Newark, New Jersey to his parents, Kier Simon and Kysema Baker. He departed this life and entered into eternal rest on January 28, 2015 at University Hospital in Newark.

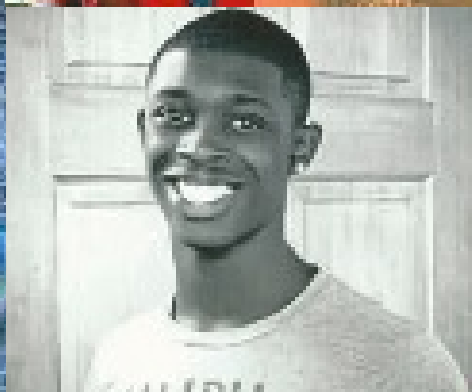

Kyzeir was educated in the Newark Public School System. He was an Honor Roll student and graduate of Newton Street School. He went on to attend Malcolm X Shabazz High School as a freshman.

Kyzeir was a warm, kind-hearted young man full of laughter and jokes. He enjoyed playing basketball and video games, hanging out with his cousins and friends, and most of all being a ladies' man.

Kyzeir will always be a legend in our family. Kyzeir was loved by all because he was "LOVE". In the words of Kyzeir: "I got more bars than Kit Kats."

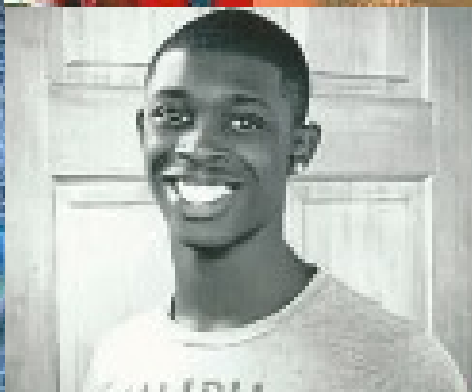

Kyzeir was preceded in death by his great-great grandfather, Robert D. Mangan, and his uncle, Raymond Mangan.

Kyzeir Baker leaves to cherish his fond memories: his mother, Kysema Baker; his father, Kier Simon; brother, Quadir Muhammad; his great grandmother, Debra Mangan; great-great grandmother, Josephine Gray; his grandfather, William H. Baker; step grandfather, Herbert Cannady; his aunts, Tarina, Kiesha, Kizzie and Sodonja; uncles, Kylee and Joshua; and a host of cousins and friends who will truly miss him.

Who Will Cry for the Little Boy?

Who will cry for the little boy?

Lost and all alone.

Who will cry for the little boy?

Abandoned without his own?

Who will cry for the little boy?

He cried himself to sleep.

Who will cry for the little boy?

He never had for keeps.

Who will cry for the little boy?

He walked the burning sand

Who will cry for the little boy?

The boy inside the man.

Who will cry for the little boy?

Who knows well hurt and pain

Who will cry for the little boy?

He died again and again.

Who will cry for the little boy?

A good boy he tried to be

Who will cry for the little boy?

Who cries inside of me.
