Eulogy

Edward A. Young was born on April 20, 1930, to Charley and Florence Young in the province of Camaguey, Cuba. The family emigrated to Jamaica, West Indies where Eddie, as he was fondly known, spent his formative and early years.

Eddie came to the United States in the 1960s and settled in the Bronx. He moved to Florida in the 1990s where he enjoyed the sunshine and his gardening (mostly planting his vegetables), that was so reminiscent of his beloved Jamaica.

He enjoyed discussing politics and the state of affairs throughout the world, especially Jamaica. He loved his family and spoke kindly and affectionately of his parents; his siblings; his children and grandchildren; nieces/nephews; and his many friends.

Eddie departed this life on Friday morning, January 30, 2015 in Miami, Florida with his son Kirt, by his side.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Charley and Florence Young; siblings Eric, Marjorie, and Tony; and Inez Smith, the mother of his daughter Joy.

He leaves behind his children, whom he loved deeply: Joy along with her husband and two children; Charley and his five children; Kirt and his wife and their five children; Margaret (Meg); Georgia; and Jason and his wife and three children.

His three brothers: Arthur along with his wife Marjorie and their children and grandchildren; Jimmy and his wife Gloria and their children and grandchildren; the baby brother of the family, Stafford; and his sister-in-law Winifred.

He also leaves behind Gwendolyn Wright, the mother of Charley, Kirt and Meg; Linnette Barnett, the mother of Georgia; and Verna Alexander, the mother of Jason and a long-time dear friend of Eddie. We also remember the long list of beloved nieces and nephews.

Romans 8:35-39 (NKJV)

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written: "For Your sake we are killed all day long; We are accounted as sheep for the slaughter."

37 Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.

38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come,

39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Appreciation

In appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown during this sad time, we thank each of you for words of encouragement, flowers, cards, emails, text messages, and phone calls; your visits, all your expressions of love and most of all your prayers, which continue to support and strengthen us. And a special thank-you to Ruth, Eddie's long-time caregiver.
