Obituary

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the spirit of the Lord.”

(II Corinthians 3:16)

Granny’s body housed a spirit that was full of love, strength and kindness. Granny’s body eventually grew weaker and was unable to sustain the transformation that her spirit would make. Her body could not contain her immortality for to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Therefore, on January 31, 2015 her transformation was complete.

Gladys Baugh, affectionately known as “Granny”, transitioned this life after a long period of illness, to be with the Lord.

Gladys was a faithful member of Greater Mount Moriah Baptist Church until her health began to fail. She was also a member of the Celestial Choir while she attended church.

Gladys was born October 12, 1931 to the late Maggie Jones Stevens and Eddie Heyward in Ridgeland, South Carolina. She was joined in holy matrimony on July 12, 1961 to the late Willie Baugh.

Gladys was a factory worker for many years. However, she adored children and found her true passion in keeping the children of her family and friends the most.

Gladys leaves to cherish her memory: a special goddaughter, Latasha Carreras and her family; three brothers, James Bell of Arizona, Edward Heyward of Savannah, Georgia and Willie Stevens of Milltown, NJ; one sister, Elouise Ramirez of Las Vegas, Nevada; three sisters-in-law, Barbara Heyward of Savannah, Georgia, Roeneia Stevens of Milltown, NJ and Dorothy Stevens of Jersey City, NJ; one stepdaughter, Willie Mae Lyons of King George, Virginia; and a host of step-grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She also leaves behind Doris Hooker (former home aide) and Juileta Morrero (special home aide).

Granny would always say: “Y’all Be Good Now”

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me I wish you wouldn't cry the Way you did today while thinking of the many things we did not get to say I know how much you love me as much as I love you each time that you think of me I know you will miss me too when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand the angel said my place was ready in heaven far above And That I would have to leave behind all those I Dearly Love but when I walked through Heaven's Gates I felt so much at home when GOD looked down and smiled at me from his golden throne he said This Is Eternity and All I promised you today for life on earth is done but Here it starts a new I promise no tomorrow for today will always last and Since each day's the exact same way there is no longing for the past so When Tomorrow starts without me do not think we're apart for every time you think of me remember I'm right here in your heart.

Acknowledgements

We extend our profound appreciation for the prayers, calls and many acts of kindness shown to us during this time of Bereavement. May God continue to bless you!
