Obituary

Christopher Cornelius Graham was born to Otto C. Graham and Pamela Williams Graham on September 26, 1992 at St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital here in New York City. He attended Clinton High School and went to work to help support his family and his music career.

From the age of six to his teen years, Christopher played on several basketball teams such as The Bomb Squad, Webster P.A.L., and Gladiators. Christopher was mostly popular by the names "C-Eazy" and "A-1 Eazy" amongst his peers. He became an inspiring "Get Like" dancer and an artist/rapper. Throughout Christopher's success, he became an activist and speaker against police brutality.

Christopher wanted the world to hear and enjoy his music which he took very serious. He leaves behind all his loving memories and his music to live on. Christopher was cherished and very well respected by his parents, family and friends.

He leaves behind to cherish his everlasting memories: parents, Otto and Pamela Graham; great grandmother, Alma Graves; grandmother, Willie Mae Graham; aunts, Alberta Fergus and Rayray Williams; uncles, Donald Graves, Ed Graham, David Graham and David Williams; sisters, Tara, Shaquana, Shamika, Shaliyah, Quanasia, Brantasia and Quinzia; brother, Shaquille Owens, and his expecting longtime girlfriend, Aniya London; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other childhood friends who will all miss him dearly.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
