Reflections of Junius C. Wyatt

Junius C. Wyatt, Jr. was born August 12, 1932 in Burlington, North Carolina to the proud parents of Mabel McGee Wyatt and Anderson Wyatt.

He was educated in Burlington, NC and after graduating from high school, Junius entered the United States Army where he achieved the rank of SGT. Junius relocated to New York when he was released from the Army where he learned the trade of Welding which he retired from.

But, It was also in New York where he received his greatest gift, he met his soulmate Barbara. Barbara and Junius were married in 1954, they were married for fifty-four years until the Master called him home February 2, 2015.

Junius loved to read you could always find him engrossed in a book or watching and talking sports, but most of all he loved spending time with his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Barbara; one brother, John Wyatt; four nieces; a dear friend, Judith Brooks and her family; other relatives and friends.

You Will Be Missed

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
