Obituary

Sandra Renee Gibbs was born April 5, 1950 in New York, New York. She was the third of four children born to the late Christopher and Evlena Gibbs.

She grew up in Brooklyn, New York. She graduated from Clara Barton High School. She later moved to Queens, New York and worked for Queens General Hospital as an Administrative Clerk for thirty-three years before retiring in April of 2014.

Sandra was known for her pleasant demeanor and being a helpful hand to all those who knew her. She was never down and always uplifting. She told it like it was and was never one to gossip. She was a quiet and unassuming person. Her opinion was objective and her word could be counted on. Her character will be missed for she left an example of what a lady should be like.

She leaves to mourn her passing: two sisters, Mable Gadsden and Priscilla Gibbs (Abraham) of New York City; three brothers, Christopher Gibbs, Jr. and Earl Grant of New York, and Anthony Gibbs of Charleston S.C.; two aunts, Annabelle Brown and Mary Brown of New York City; two nephews, John Gadsden and Abraham Aessa (Petrina) of New York; one niece, Juwana Aessa-Harris (Jeremy) of Charlotte NC; two grand nephews, Spencer and Shawn-Christopher of Charlotte NC; one grand niece, Sophia of Charlotte N.C; and a host of cousins and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
