Gone Too Soon

By Phyllis Roberts

You were tired, I saw it in your face.
The end was coming at a fast pace.
But, how I wanted you to stay...

In time, I came to understand,
Your will was not my command.
Life just became too hard for you.
I didn't want to see...but I knew..
You had to be where you could fly.
Mom, it's so hard to say good-bye.
You were mine for all those years,
I'll miss you and cry my tears.
But I also know, that's okay...
For we'll be together again some day.
