Obituary

Mrs. Sallie Pearl Rowson, was born on March 16, 1923 to the late Walter and Hallie Randolph Wheeler in Madisonville, Virginia. Her Heavenly Father called her home on Thursday, February 5, 2015.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Rozelle Whitehurst (older sister), brothers, Howard, Lynn, Murphy and Willard Wheeler.

Sallie was a loving and devoted wife, mother and faithful friend to all.

Sallie was educated in the Charlotte County Virginia Public School System. She united in holy matrimony to Leroy Rowson on June 26, 1954. And to this union was born two children, Cynthia Rowson McCoy and Stanley Rowson.

She joined and became a member of the Greater Refuge Temple Church in Harlem, New York for many years, where she received the holy ghost as a faithful member.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, Leroy Rowson; daughter, Cynthia Rowson McCoy (Will); a son, Stanley Rowson (Yvette Paige); three grandchildren, Keith Rowson, Samantha Amaker and Sean White; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Geneva Wheeler; two great grandchildren, Keith Rowson, Jr. and Gisele Rowson; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
