Obituary

Kathleen Williams Brown was born on June 11, 1932 in Shiloh, North Carolina to Bertha Williams and Lorenzo Brothers. She was raised in Elizabeth City, NC where she attended elementary school. In her early childhood “Kathy” was moved to New York City by her mother. Bertha married Mark Avery, a wonderful man who raised and loved Kathy as his own daughter.

K

She completed her education in NYC, where she graduated high school. Kathy attended the United House of Prayer for All People in Harlem 115th Street, then 125th and 8th Avenue. While attending the U.H.O.P. She met Earl Brown, also a member. They were wedded in holy matrimony in 1954. From this marriage came four children. The family resided in Rockaway Beach, NY before relocating to Jersey City, NJ.

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years*

*But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
