Obituary

On Sunday, February 8, 2015 in Newark, Miriam Regina Corley answered the roll call and closed her eyes. She went from labor to reward, her Lord was short one Angel and He called her home.

Miriam affectionately known as “Mill”, was born on September 13, 1938 in Washington, DC to the late Elja and Anna Lee Corley.

She was a graduate of South Side High School in Newark. Miriam worked for H&R Block for many years, later she became self-employed as an accountant. “Mill” loved people and life equally, once in her company you could never forget her.

“Mill” will be greatly missed and memories of her will be treasured forever.

She is preceded in death by her sisters, Margaret Corley-Larkins and Betty Russel Sheldon and two great-great grandchildren.

“Mill”, leaves to cherish her memories: four sons, Rasul Shabazz (Joyce) of College Park, GA, Wadu Corley (Marsha) of Smyrna, GA, Rahim Corley (Maria) of Newark, NJ, and Bahlyd Larkins of The United States Military; one sister, Barbara Williams (Clarence). She also leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, she raised seven foster children and leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
