Obituary

Samantha Covel of Bronx, New York passed away Saturday, February 14, 2015. Samantha was born March 15, 1966 in Manhattan, New York. She was the daughter of the late Elmer Covel and Gladys Covel.

She attended St. Jerome, Immaculate Conception Elementary Schools and Jane Addams Vocational High School. She was a counter worker for Yankee Stadium for several years. Samantha was the life of the party. She enjoyed having a good time and making people laugh. She had a big heart. She would open her door to anybody who needed help. One thing about Samantha was she lived her life to the fullest. As her favorite saying was "You live life once and once is good enough."

She is survived by: her two daughters, Sade and Shirelle; and her son, Shemar; her former partner, Alani Akesode; her two grandchildren, Malik and Malia Tyler who she truly loved; her son-in-law, Dwayne Tyler; her grandmother, Louise Sullivan; her brother, Anthony Sullivan; her aunt, Beryl Major; her uncle, Brian Porter; her cousin, Miles; and niece, Shaquanna; her wing man, Melvin Collins; and her good friend/sister, Charlene Robinson; also friends and loved ones.

I've Changed My Address

*I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.*
