Obituary

Elvie Fornéy Jr. was born December 9, 1937 in Wilson, North Carolina to his parents, the late L.V. and Nettie Fornéy. Elvie was raised in Belleville, New Jersey and was a current resident of Irvington, NJ. Elvie passed away February 16, 2015.

Elvie (L.V.) Fornéy, Jr. was a rugged – but nonetheless charming-individualist with a taste for the finer things in life; be it his love of his garden or his fashion sense. He conquered life's hardships, surviving with a compassionate soul as evidenced by his caring for others and his passion for cooking and growing things in his garden. I believe these thoughts mirror his own.

Elvie Fornéy, Jr. leaves to cherish his precious memory: his cherished sons, Elvie Fornéy III and Sean Fornéy, and their respective wives, Anna Marie and Milva Elizabeth; his sisters, Nettie Fornéy-Thomas and her husband, Ralph Thomas, and Susie Fornéy-Polite; his companion of many years, Sharon D. Wingate; a beloved aunt, Mildred Fornéy Jackson; his nephews, Theodore L. Williams, Gerald Polite, Jr. and Gil-Scott Polite; nieces, Athena Thomas George and Lynelle Williams; his loving grandchildren, D'Andre, Jelissa, Jasmine, Sean and Sophia; and many other extended family members and friends.

Reflections

“The man who has planted a garden feels that he has done something for the good of the whole world.”

~ CHARLES DUDLEY WARNER

“Die when I may, I want it said by those who know me best, that I always plucked a thistle and planted a flower where I thought a flower would grow.”

~ ABRAHAM LINCOLN

*“He that is a garden’s friend
Growth calm and wise,
And after death shall rise and tend
A plot in Paradise.”*

~ DOROTHY FRANCES GURNEY
