Obituary

Frances Armstrong Morales was born to the late Fannie McAlester Armstrong and the late Turner Armstrong Sr. on May 3, 1939. Frances went home to rest on February 20, 2015, 5:00 p.m. at Clara Maass Medical Center in Belleville, NJ.

Frances was raised in Baltimore, MD. She received her childhood education there. At an earlier age, she learned about the teachings of Jesus Christ from her parents. Frances accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior at New Hope Baptist Church in Newark, NJ under the leadership of Rev. Joe A. Carter. She was an active member and enjoyed morning services every Sunday until her health failed.

Frances relocated to Newark NJ in the early 1960's there she met and married Carlos Nelson Morales and to this union two daughters were born. Frances loved her daughters dearly. Her main concern in raising her daughters was she wanted them to be strong and independent women in her mirror image. Frances was preceded in death by her sister Mable Washington.

Frances was gainfully employed for various employers throughout her life. She retired from Elastic Stop Nut after thirty years of service. Frances was well known in her community. During her early years, she was a director of the Summer Youth Employment Program of Newark. She provided breakfast, lunch, snack, and outside recreation for her community. Frances will truly be missed by many.

Frances is survived by her husband, Carlos Nelson Morales of San Juan, PR; two loving daughters, Marta and Iquana Morales both of Newark, NJ; a loving surrogate mother to Fatima Richardson; three grandchildren, Douglas Jr., Darnell both of Newark, NJ, Dwayne Motley (Cicily) of Winston Salem, NC; six great-grandchildren, Mijia, Davion, Lyndon, Antwon, Madison, and Nyzir; surviving siblings, Viola Ancrum of Charlotte, NC, and Turner Armstrong Jr. (Pat) of Baltimore, MD and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Heaven Has Gained An Angel

As you complete this temporary journey you have embraced our hearts

Yes we mourn but realize this is where your life truly starts Your smile sparkled greater than silver and gold We're willing to let go of your hand so that God can grab hold.

We will always love you as you have continued to love us all we ask now is that you look down while you are above us we are grateful that God put us in the midst of your presence we breathe with your memory and walk with your essence.

The Lord is our Shepherd He tends to us as sheep and mends the hearts that are weak until one day we can shake his hand and sit at his feet we don't think of you as a loss to our family that remains We cherish you as a beautiful angel that heaven has gained!
