Obituary

Milton Turner was born July 23, 1937 in Akron, Alabama.

As a child Milton attended Methodist Church in Akron with his mother, Ruth (Burrell) Ragin who preceded him in death. As a young man he lived in Harlem, NY and attended Benjamin Franklin High School located in Downtown Manhattan. Later he was employed by the Metropolitan Transit Authority. However, Milton had a strong passion for music and his dream was to one day make it big in the music industry. Over the years he was a member of various music groups including: The Packards in the 1950's and the world famous Drifters in the late 1960's. He most recently was Vice President and CEO of B-Boy Records.

Milton Turner was a strong man that was always on the go. He was outgoing, loving, caring, kindhearted, and friendly to his family and friends whom he displayed unconditional love for.

Jesus in his infinite mercy called our beloved home on February 17, 2015 at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital.

Milton Turner leaves to mourn his passing and cherish his memory: his daughters, Melody, April, Shawntae, and Fremah of New York, NY and Antija (Maurice) of Martin, TN; cousin, Leroy Burrell; The Allen family, Wilson family, and Brown family; a nephew and host of nieces, grandchildren, cousins, friends, and other relatives.

you in the stars;*

Because they fade away.

I won't remember you with a poem;

For it will be forgotten one day.

*I will just keep
you safe in my heart;*

*So that you are
with me in every way..."*
