To Mom

by Darnell Meadows

You mean more than a mother to me, when I was down you would talk to me and lift my spirits up. I remember every Sunday we would have coffee, breakfast and read the paper together. As well as watch the New York Mets or listen to gospel music. Now that you left me I don't know what to do. But I know your there watching over me so it's not goodbye but see you later.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
Whatever the part.
