Obituary

Princess Jay'dah Taj' Mirah McEachin was born June 22, 2008. No one cherished and loved her family more than Jay'dah. Besides her family she absolutely adored learning, attending Oakwood Avenue Elementary Community School and her classmates. With a smile befitting a princess, she warmed the hearts of all who graced her presence.

Jay'dah's favorite pastime was to eat, she loved food. She loved all things pink and her hair accessories. She loved her hair accessories so much she decided not to become one of the Orange Bengal Cheerleaders because she could not wear her hair beads.

Jay'dah's demeanor was quiet and reserved, not to be underestimated because her actions spoke in volume. How do you spell Hero? J-A-Y-D-A-H. Her love was selfless, sacrificial and unconditional. She didn't hesitate when she made the brave decision to save her best friend and brother, Rahmeen to find her baby brother Zi'Yahn as well.

Prince Zi'Yahn Kashmir Toney was born August 14, 2013. A bouncing baby boy that had the brightest smile that could light the sky on any evening better than the stars. He was the youngest of six but make no mistake has affectionately known as the boss by his siblings.

Zi'Yahn had a way of getting your attention no matter what, he loved to take something of yours and making you chase him. He has a mind of his own, he ran around calling the shots, and his brothers & sisters adoringly catered to him. His favorite food was chicken and he loved drinking milk.

Zi'Yahn with his beautiful golden copper skin, was always the happiest baby anyone had ever seen.

On Friday February 20, 2015 Jaydah and Zi'Yahn received their angels wings and took flight to be with their Lord. They were preceded in death by: great grandmother, Lois Skipper and grandfather, Florencio Ortiz

Jaydah leaves to cherish her memories, mother and father; Tanika Skipper and Jarret McEachin, Orange, NJ, sisters; Taneesha and Jahzyah Skipper, Orange, NJ, brothers; Nah'Quan Skipper and Rahmeen Woodson, Orange, NJ, grandparents; Lakeesha Skipper, NC, Ellen Davis, Orange, NJ, great grandparents; Mattye Davis, Orange, NJ, Jacqueline McEachin, Howell, NJ.

Jay'dah

You are my angel
you are my peach
you are my star that I can't reach you are the light that shines over me
the best thing in life that I can't see when times got rough you always smiles
you are loved by all you're the perfect child you are my hero you bring me hope you taught me a lot and you barely spoke I miss the times you would hug me tight and I miss the times that I would kiss you goodnight I miss the times we used to read you're books and those are the times that won't be overlooked So Jay'dah my Jay'dah you will always be my guardian angel watch over me
Love Daddy

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is everlasting though the flesh is gone.

The memories of joy and laughter will still live on I will always miss your voice and your presence I will remember all of the times we shared. Don't worry I will move on as I get in my car listening to your favorite song, "I Got Love On My Mind" - I know life still goes on as I start my days and end my nights my mother's love will embrace me tight. Feeling your presence and knowing you're there letting me know I have nothing to fear. I will then close my eyes and squeeze real tight then I will have a good sleep.
