Reflections of Life

Karen A. Herring was born on April 17, 1959 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Andrea F. Peachey and Bishop Hubert Rogers. Being her mother's child, some of Karen's favorite pastimes were shopping, traveling and cooking for her family and friends.

Karen was also very active in the church. She was the church secretary, a member of the choir and served as an adjutant to Reverend Sallie Lloyd at New Hope Institutional Baptist Church, where she joined on January 30, 2011. If there was a need to be met, she was willing to try to meet it, even if she wasn't quite sure if she was best suited for the task. If there were shoes to fill, she ventured to fill them. Karen wore many hats and, as some of you may know, she even made a hat or two by hand in her day. She was very bright and creative.

Karen cherished moments with family and friends. She will be lovingly remembered and missed by; her daughters, Shara and Shaday; three sisters, Kim, Kelley and Kimberly; many cousins, other relatives, friends and her beloved New Hope Church family.
