Obituary

Martha Brooks was born in Santee, South Carolina and she was the last survivor of her family from her parents.

Martha was an active member of Emanuel Baptist Church in the Bronx. Martha was an active member for the Lord and loved to help and feed others. Martha was a true Christian who loved and adored her family without prejudice. Martha's spirit and love for people was felt by everyone who had known her, she was an angel sent from GOD.

Martha became a widower on October 31, 2010, when her husband James Brooks joined the Lord to prepare the house for her home coming.

Martha Brooks is survived by: her children, Terraine, Lenzo, Lawrence, George and Kisha. Martha leaves behind: her nine grandchildren, Ashley, Kalani, La'nysia, Terrell, Dyasia, Imani, Madison, Avery and La'krisla. Martha also was a great grandmother that leaves behind, Kayden, Mason, and soon to be born, Kennedy. Martha also had survived all of her friends except Carolyn Samuels.

Don't cry for me I have gone to be with both of my Kings, my memories will always be in your hearts. Don't cry for me I only want to see tears of joy from knowing me and the outstanding woman I was. I will miss you all dearly here on earth, but, I had to choose everlasting life when GOD knocked on my door. I had and felt no fear my work was done here on earth I could no longer better myself. I have and feel no more pain so don't cry for me I'm just up in heaven now helping out.

The Resurrection Prayer

I am the resurrection and the life, saith the Lord. He or she that believes though he or she were dead yet shall live and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. I know that my redeemer lives and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth and body be destroyed yet shall I see GOD:whom I see for myself and mine eyes behold not as a stranger. We brought nothing into this world we carry nothing out, the LORD gave and hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.
